

Knowing God and Making Him Known

September 2, 2007

Pastor Tom Shirk

The God who made the world and all things in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands; neither is He served by human hands, as though He needed anything, since He Himself gives to all life and breath and all things.

Acts 17:24, 25

For Your Life Group:

1. How was ancient Athens similar to modern day Boulder?
2. What are the idols we observe in Boulder, and what do they reflect about current trends in worship? (Read Jeremiah 9:23, 24)
3. From Acts 17, describe one of the seven attributes of God in your own words. (Can you find other Biblical evidence for that characteristic of God?)
4. How do we get to know God? Read Jeremiah 29:13 and Psalm 145:18-19.
